

Sorgin, the first spirits of Sabine & François Lurton, winemaker and estates owner in France and abroad. Descending from a major Bordeaux wine family, they have relaunched in 2016, the distillation business once started by Léonce Récapet (1880), François' great-grandfather. This distilled gin is a bridge between wine and spirits, inspired by Sauvignon Blanc, François's favorite grape varietal and for which he is a world expert.

« Sorgin » (witch in Basque) refers to its French South West origin and to the conviviality, embodied by basque celebrations. Sorgin is unique with its grape base (wine spirits) and its natural Sauvignon Blanc aroma, which are blended with juniper and 6 various botanicals : citrus zest (pink grapefruit, lemon & lime), violet, broom, blackcurrant buds. A fruity yet delicate gin.
